Q8: "When I cry the hills laugh;
 When I humble myself the flowers rejoice;
 When I bow, all things are elated."
 Cry, humble and bow indicate different intensity with which the rain falls. Explain the three in context.

Answer:
 There are three degrees of intensity by which the Rain pours down on the Earth. The poet explains how the different moods of the Rain suits different things:
 1. When it pours in the most ferocious manner with thunderstorms and lightning, it cries. It makes the hills happy; they roll down in joy and reach the bottom with the water running down.
 2. When it pours like light showers, a little humble, it makes the flowers, the flora and fauna happy. They dance to the rhythmic beats of the Rain and their joyousness is explored.
 3. When it drizzles, bows down, it makes the whole humanity happy. Its lovely little drops drizzling all over are enjoyed by all.

Q9: How do you think the rain quenches the thirst of the fields and cures clouds ailments?

Answer:
 The Rain is divine and mystic and it relieves everyone of their misery. The poet calls it a messenger of mercy who not just quenched the thirst of the fields; however, also cured the clouds of their ailments. Here, both are served and they solve each other's purpose. So, they appear to be lovers that fulfil each other's needs.
